

BIOGRAPHY

BRIG. GEN.(RET) KHALED ISMAIL SALAMEH

Originally from the town of Shoubak, south of Jordan, born in Zarqa, Jordan on November 8th 1959, grew up in Amman, and after graduation from secondary school went abroad to continue higher education, joined the Jordanian Armed Forces as a lieutenant engineer in 1986 and was retired in August 2018.

Education:

1986 BSc. Chemical Engineering, UND, ND, United States.

1998 MSc. Nuclear Engineering, Centre for Nuclear Studies, Islamabad, Pakistan.

ASSIGNMENTS:

1986-1998 NBC Field Officer, Chemical Support Unit, Engineering Corps, JAF.

1998- 1999 NBC Technical Staff Officer, Chemical Support Unit, Engineering Corps, JAF.

1999-2007 International Cooperation Staff Officer, International Cooperation Department, Directorate of Strategic Planning, GHQ-JAF & on-call lecturer with UNMOVIC, United Nations.

2007-2010 International Inspector/Chemical Weapons & Munition Specialist, OPCW/United Nations, The Hague, Netherlands.

2010-2013 Chief of Coordination Branch/International Cooperation Department, Directorate of Strategic Planning, GHQ-JAF.

2013- 2015 Head of International Cooperation Dept., Directorate of Strategic Planning. GHQ-JAF

2015- 2017 Director of Strategic Planning & Head of National Technical committee to Counter WMD

2017- 2020 Director General, National Center for Nuclear and Radiological Security, EMRC, Jordan.

2020- General Manager, ROCK Company for Security Services and Consultancy, GHQ-JAF, Jordan.

Social Status: married, and have four daughters.